A BIT ABOUT ME

Design by profession and artist by soul. I draw in an unerased way because, for me, art is an unerased form of expression. It's an emotion and feeling which, we cannot erase or rehearse. The aim is to turn my black, white dream into a colorful reality through work, which injects life into canvas.

Born and crafted as a designer in India, I added modern jewelry design to my armor in later years at various industries. Currently setting my stage in Manchester, the UK, to showcase my dream on canvas.
