Graduated bachelor's degree in Fashion Design from one of the top 5 university in Thailand. Studied and worked in Thai Fashion Field over 5 years. Recently graduated from Master fashion Design Technology Womenswear Design at London College of Fashion year 2019/20. I believe fashion is beyond just pieces of garments. It reflects humans' wisdom, culture, history and imagination. With this passion, I am determent using my design to educate people, to make them understand the great value of how fashion can offer to this world.
