

Fanni Varga

Profile

An innovative fashion designer who has more than nine years of experience in the industry. With a relentless passion for fashion design and years of hands-on experience, I am the creative designer and founder of contemporary womenswear label byVarga. My journey in the fashion industry is driven by creativity, innovation, sustainability and a deep commitment to excellence and quality.

I have been involved in various freelance projects and collaborations with many clients and big companies to deliver seasonal creative projects and products. (Sophie Hallette/Bevlo/Carlton Tower Jumeriah Hotel/ London College of Fashion)

Skilled communicator and excellent in problem identification and creation of the most effective solution. Following and being knowledgeable about the latest fashion trends and developments, my job is also my hobby.
